

REGISTERED TO KILL
A SYNOPSIS BY A.I.M. FOTHERTOP

Concerto, Rhythm and Sonata – three female assassins – work for a European group of super-villains with its headquarters in Germany. SCIMITAR – the Special Criminal Intelligence Murder Incorporated for Terrorism, Assassination and Retribution is their mysterious employer.

The registration to kill for the World Alliance of Global Executioners, the ACE prefix, was awarded to women. It was given to those who sought to uphold the law. It would bring one the investigations she would aspire to – the type that was like a lethal cocktail. Baker, WAGE’S latest recruit, is the woman ordered to stop the enemy from carrying out their activities. Baker is prepared to do whatever’s necessary and to go wherever her trail of vengeance leads her, in order to bring about the demise of ‘The Gaffer’.
