This Joint Final Rule begins with the preamble discussion in which the Departments respond to a summary of comments on various provisions of the rule with their current thinking when the rule was drafted. The Departments’ responses to comments provide many useful insights on the decision making process used by the Departments to determine whether changes were to be made to the Joint Final Rule in response to comments on the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, or NPRM. The preamble provides the context within which the decisions on the Final Rule were made, and contains useful information for stakeholders. It is organized by the following outline.

Preamble Table of Contents [p. 55792]
