

Josh Warneke was born August 8, 1977. His dad Marshall Warneke, established Bible Baptist Church in Salt Lake City, Utah which is also the church that he grew up in. When he was nine years old, he put his faith in Christ for the salvation of his soul, and when he was 12 years old he gave his life to the Lord to serve in whatever capacity the Lord would allow him.

In 1996 he went to Pacific Coast Baptist College in San Dimas, California, and then graduated from Heartland Baptist Bible College in the year 2000. It was in 1998 on his second Missions trip to Fiji that he knew that the Lord would have him to minister in the Fiji Islands.

In 1999 he met Renee Lydick, whose father is also a church planter. He established Longview Bible Baptist Church in Longview, Washington. And then he has been pastoring Rocky Mountain Baptist Church in Kalispell, Montana since 1994. Renee and he were married in 2001, and after their honeymoon they went straight to Lubbock, Texas to work on staff under Kevin O'Brien as Missionary Intern at Bethany Baptist Church. They both were blessed to serve there for about 2 and a half years.

In 2004 he was ordained into the gospel ministry, and in 2005 they were sent out of Bethany Baptist Church in Lubbock, Texas to the Fiji Islands as missionaries. They were blessed and honoured to serve there for about 14 years and 10 months. By God's grace they were allowed to establish Bethany Baptist Church in Vunisamaloa, Ba, Fiji. As God directed them to return to the States, they turned the church in Fiji over to a local pastor named Orisi Ramenawa.

In August of 2020 God called he and his family to pastor Bible Baptist Church in Taylorsville, Utah. He and his family feel blessed to presently be serving the Lord with the saints at Bible Baptist Church.
