Your responses should be detailed and thoughtful. Provide specific examples and anecdotes to extend your ideas.

1. What did you learn about documentaries and creating documentary films during this unit?

2. In terms of planning your film – what helped you? Explain.

3. After having gone through the editing process, what would you go back and change or do differently? After viewing your finished film, what works and what doesn't?

4. What role did you play in your group? How /what did you contribute – be specific.
