Letter of Intent Assignment

Your first mission to Rock Your World is to convince me that you are motivated and qualified to work on an issue of your choice.

To accomplish this, your assignment is to write a letter addressed to me that includes the following:

Write a paragraph in which you name your spark, your first choice issue. Explain why it is important to you and what your process was in learning about it. You must also include which Human Right(s) is/are being violated.

Write a paragraph in which you name your second spark, second choice issue. Explain why it is important to you and what your process was in learning about it. You must also include which Human Right(s) is/are being violated.

Write a paragraph describing some of the ideas you have for starting a ripple about this issue. What ideas do you have for your group work?

Write a paragraph explaining what skills and areas of expertise you would bring to your group and this project. For example, what successes have you had in the past working on group projects? What special writing, speaking, computer, video, persuasive, artistic, research, organization, leadership, or other skills do you have that would help your group? Be specific. Write about others in the class who have similar sparks or complementary talents you have spoken to.
