Dear Friends –
The month of November marks my third and final month of Sabbatical and I approach it with joy and anticipation. As a person who never completes a “To Do” list because of adding more and more to it, I feel sure my sabbatical plans will not be completed when I return on December 2nd. However, I plan to be renewed and refreshed.

My plan during the month of November is to continue spending time in the study of Christian Spirituality and Stewardship. My reading stack looks overwhelming, yet I ordered three books yesterday! The stack covers a variety of subjects, including some fiction.

In addition to studying, I plan to rest, renew and “just be” as part of my own spiritual journey – and I feel blessed beyond words to have this gift of sabbatical. During this time, Bob and I will also travel, enjoy new adventures, worship with different denominations, and visit family and friends. I continue to observe with awe how God moves in my life and in my ministry.

Thursday, October 31st will begin my time away from the church, and I will return on Monday, December 2nd. Thank you, First Presbyterian Church, for this gift of sabbatical. A written report will be available to you during the month of December.

*To all who are weary and need rest,
To all who mourn and need comfort,
To all who are lonely and need friendship,
To all who are glad and would serve their neighbors,
To all who are complacent and need disturbing,
To all who sin and need a Savior,
This church opens wide its doors
In the name of Christ and bids you welcome.*

Opening Words & Call to Worship from - Psalm 149.....Elder Nan Krueger

Sing to the Lord a new song,
God's praise in the assemble of the faithful.
Let Israel be glad in its Maker;
Let the children of Zion rejoice in their king.
Let them praise God's name with dancing,
Making melody to God with tambourine and lyre.
For the Lord takes pleasure in God's people;
God adorns the humble with victory.

+ * Hymn 326..... For All the Saints
SINE NOMINE

Prayer of Confession
God of the covenant, who calls all people to reconciliation, you have made us members of the very body of Christ; yet, we persist in wounding that body with our divisions, our suspicions and our neglect. Forgive us and teach us to nurture unity and peace. For the sake of Jesus Christ and the world he came to save.
(Let us continue in prayer silently)

Congregational Response
Hear our prayer, O Lord. Hear our prayer, O Lord.
Incline thine ear to us and grant us thy peace. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

*Gloria Patri (Hymn No. 581)
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
World without end, Amen,

Anthem We Praise You, O God
VIC VARNER, Music Director ARR. JENNINGS
LILY COOPER, Organist

- 1) Praise to the Lord of the small
Broken things, who sees the poor
Sparrow that cannot take wing.
Who loves the lame child and the
Wretch in the street who comforts
Their sorrows and washes their feet.

2) Praise to the Lord of the faint
And afraid who girds them with courage
And lends them his aid,
He pours out his spirit on vessels
So weak, that the timid can serve
And the silent can speak.
- 3) Praise to the Lord of the frail
And the ill who heals their afflictions
Or carries them till, they leave this
Tired frame and to paradise fly.
To never be sick and never to die.

4) Praise him, O praise him all ye
Who yet live who’ve been given so much
And can so little give our frail lisping
Praise God will never despise –
He sees his dear children
Through mercy-filled eyes.

* Affirmation of Faith - Apostles’ Creed
I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving
The Lord be with you.

And also with you!
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right to give our thanks and praise to the God of Abraham and Sarah, Miriam and Moses, Joshua, Deborah, Ruth, David, prophets, priests, Mary, Joseph, Elizabeth, Lydia, Paul—the God of our mothers and fathers and our children—for you, our Creator, made us all. You fashion us into one people, and continue to love us and call us through saints dedicated to your way and will. So we praise you, joining our voices with all the people of faith of every time and place who forever sing the glory of your name:

Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed are you, most gracious God, for the gift of your child, Jesus, who lived in accord with your will and offers his life for all of us. As we remember what Jesus has done for us, as we celebrate his life, death, and resurrection, we speak of that mystery we know as faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Spirit of the living God, make us one as we partake of your gifts to us that we might be in communion with you and one another. As we break bread together, may our eyes be opened to see your glory shining through all the saints who have gone before. As we lift the cup of salvation, may we be strengthened to follow their example of courage, devotion, and sacrifice. Gather us as one in service to the world here and now, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast together at God’s great family reunion with all the saints,

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor are yours, Almighty God, forever and ever. We pray you receive the prayer Jesus taught us:

Preregistering online at events.riseagainsthunger.org/FBCbeaufort2019 will help cut down on the traffic jam at the registration table; also it will allow us to know how many volunteers we will have. We are also in need of some strong men and women to help unload the meal packing items off the truck.
