

COMPLETE PROTECTION

[CYBER LIABILITY | DATA BREACH | IDENTITY RECOVERY]

Why You Need Coverage.

Every business, of every size, faces cyber risk. Data breaches are occurring more and more frequently. Companies can be held liable for damages resulting from loss of confidential customer or business data. They face costs associated with responding to breaches and recovering after a loss, and they need to protect their operations from the consequences of identity theft suffered by their own key employees.

Delete Your Worry.

Managing cyber risk requires having effective technology controls and sound business practices to protect data and information. It also includes having coverage in place from ACUITY's suite of cyber products to help when loss does occur.

ACUITY's Data Breach, Cyber Liability, and Identity Recovery Coverage Forms offer a wide range of protection backed by the strength, stability, and business expertise of ACUITY. Our cyber forms offer numerous options for limits and deductibles, and feature optional coverage enhancements.

With ACUITY's cyber coverages, you can be protected against events such as:

- An unauthorized person gaining access to your computer systems
- Malware attacks
- Loss of devices, such as laptops, cell phones, or USB flash drives
- Misplacement or theft of paper documents and files
- Identity theft suffered by key employees
- And more

We Focus on Protection!
