

Angel
by Rikki Donachie

This model uses 2 squares of the same size. One should be the colour you wish for the wings and the other skin colour on one side and robe colour on the other.

A key to the symbols used in these diagrams can be found on pages 9 and 10.

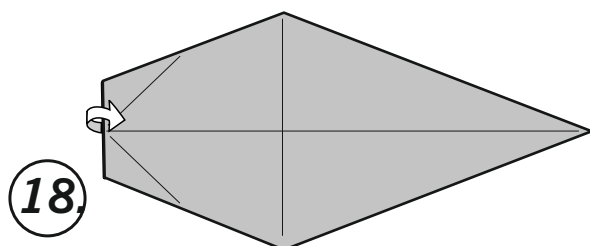

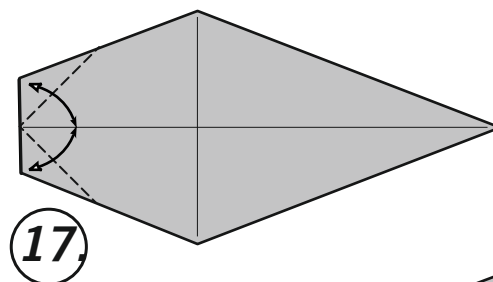

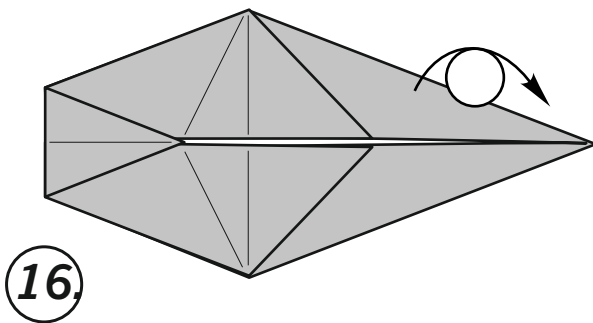

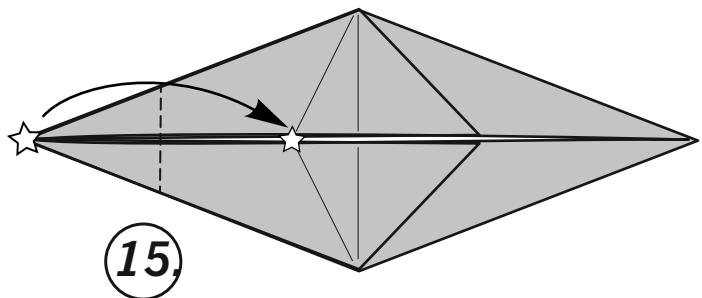

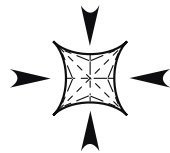

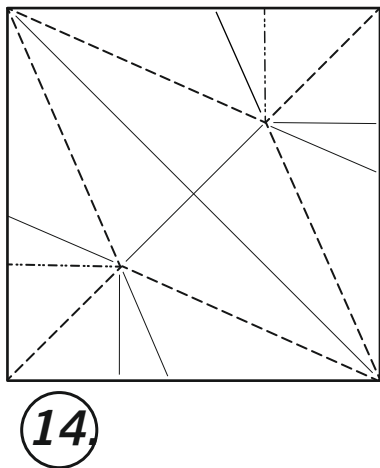

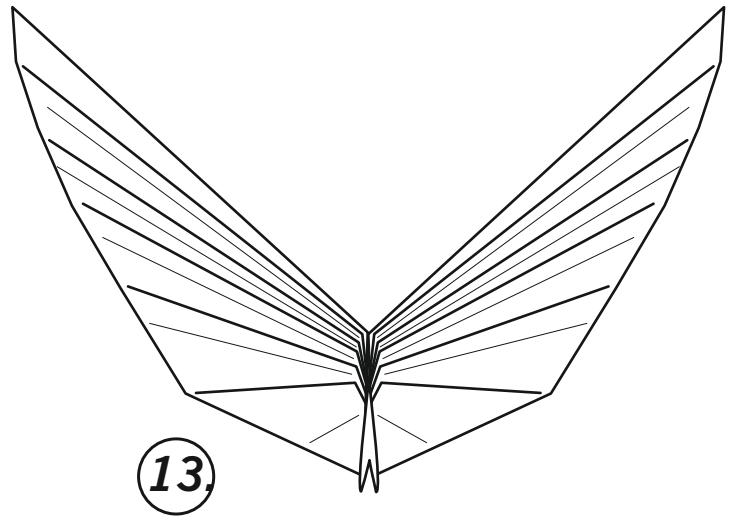

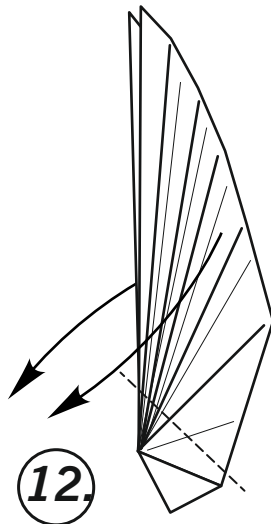

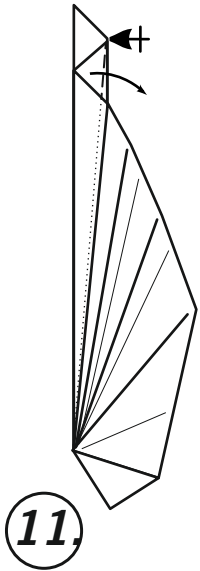

Angel

www.itsjustabitofpaper.co.uk

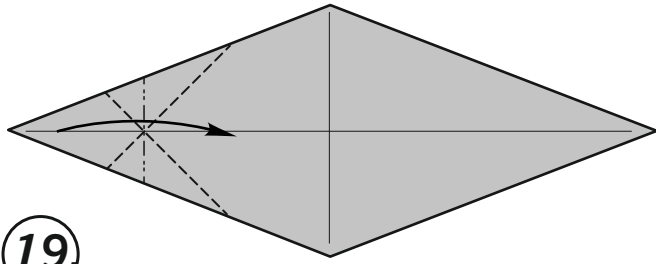

Angel

www.itsjustabitofpaper.co.uk

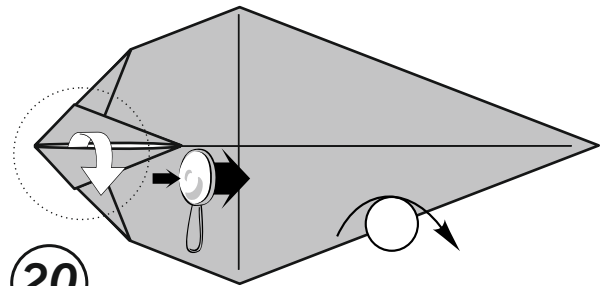

Angel

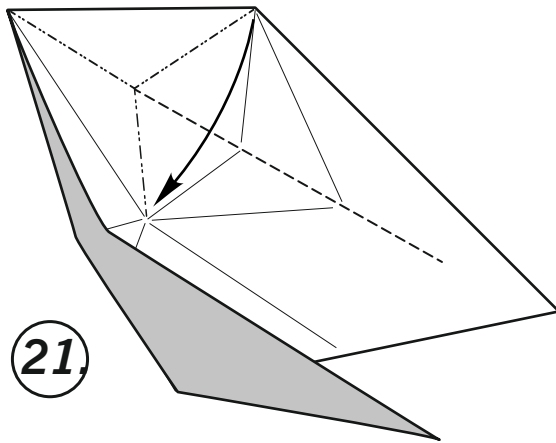

www.itsjustabitofpaper.co.uk

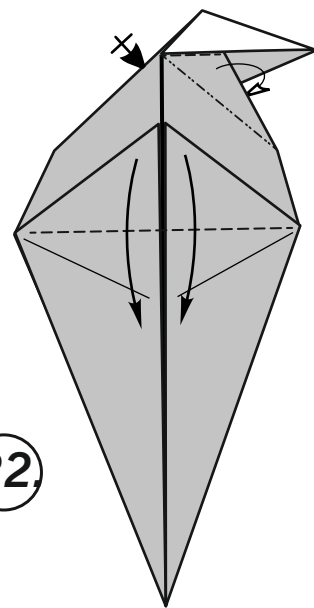

19.

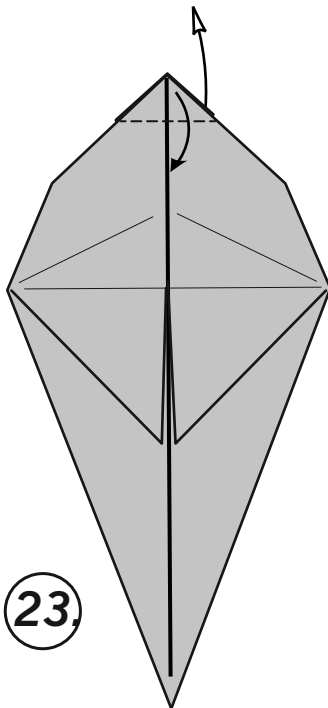

20.

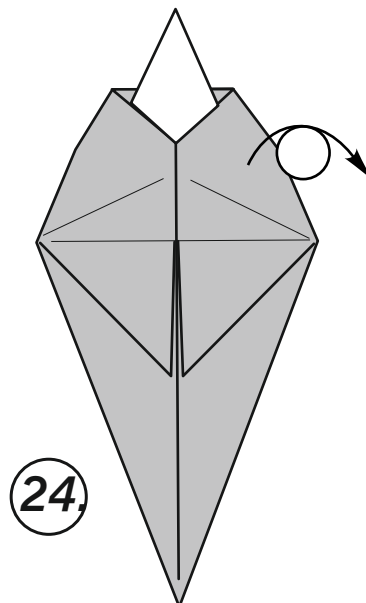

21.

22.

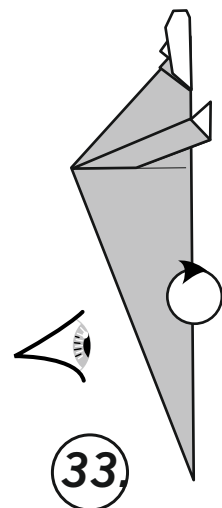

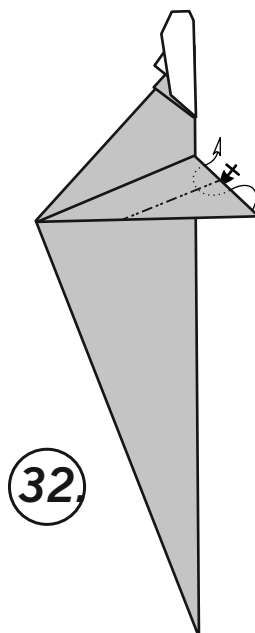

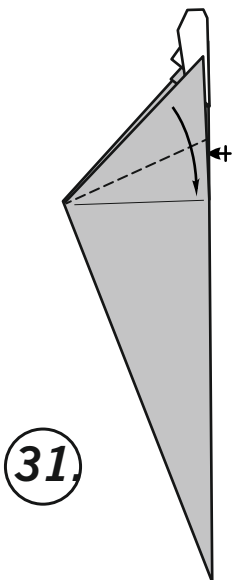

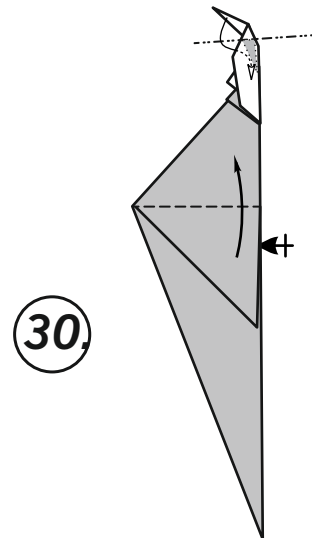

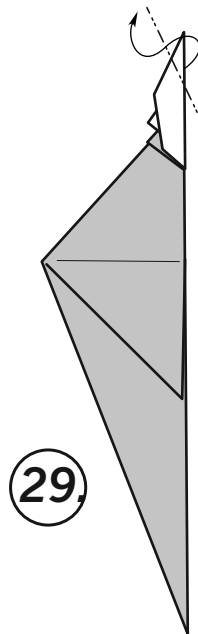

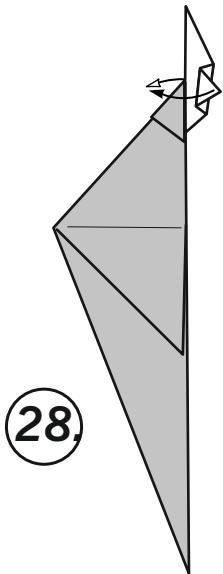

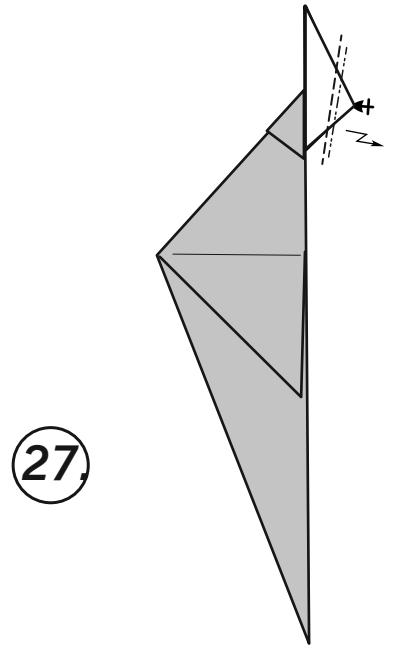

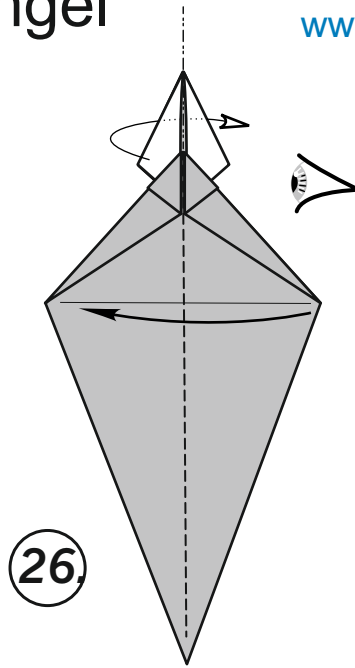

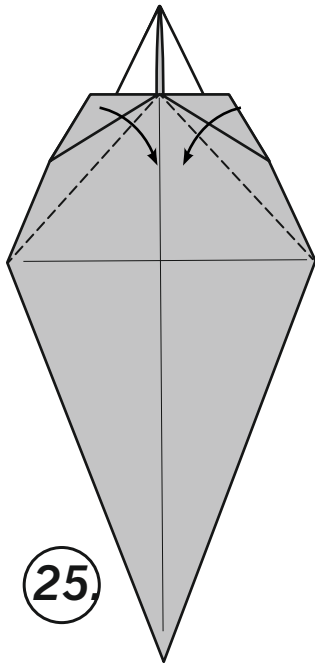

23.

24.

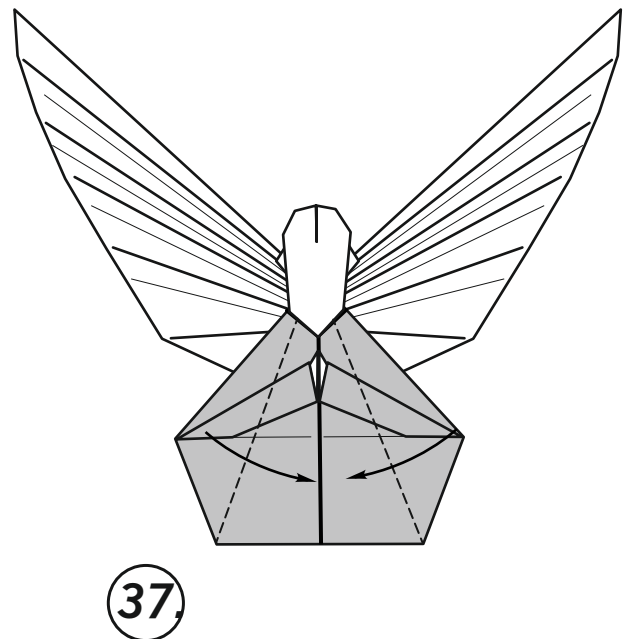

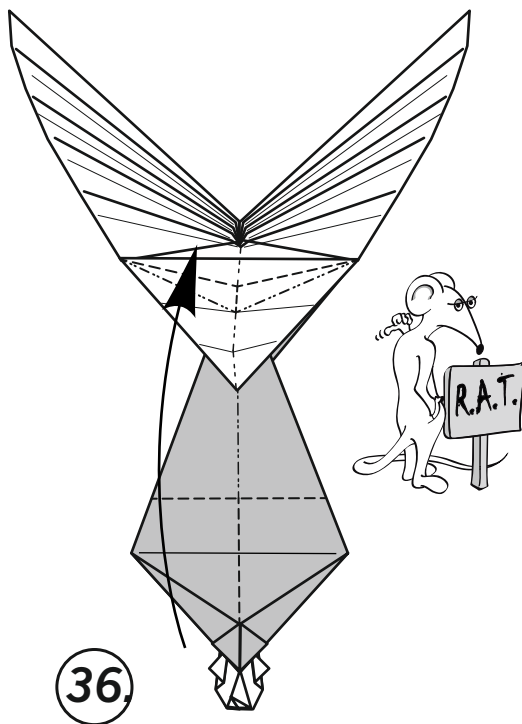

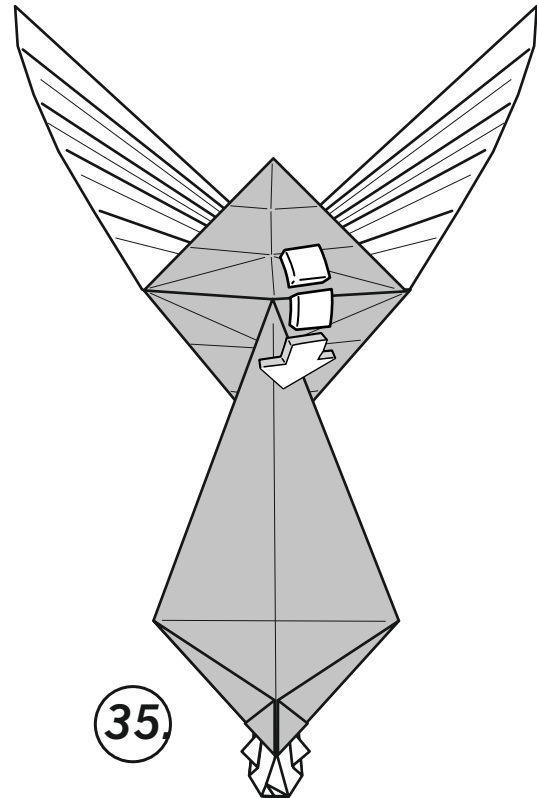

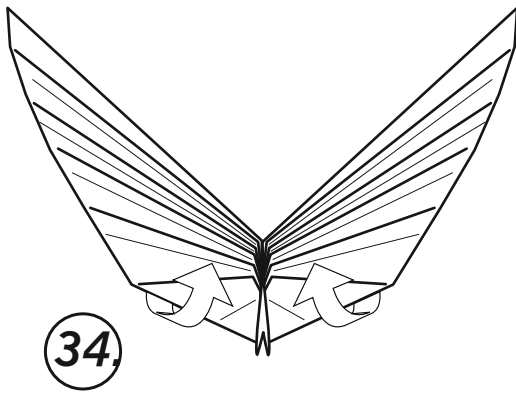

Angel

www.itsjustabitofpaper.co.uk

Angel

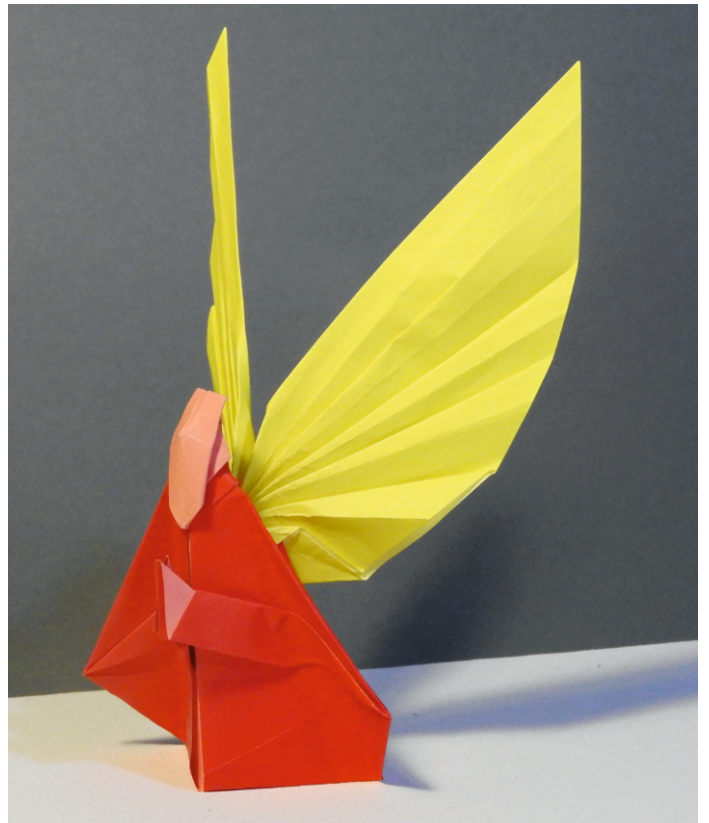

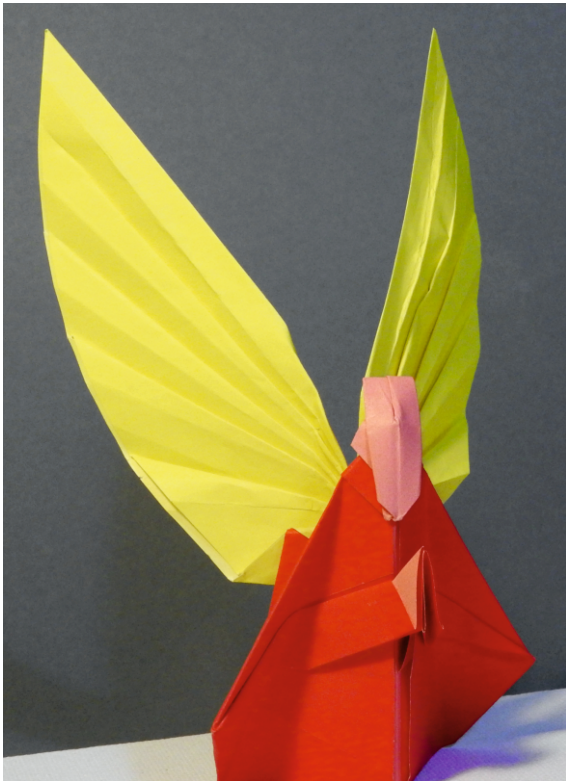

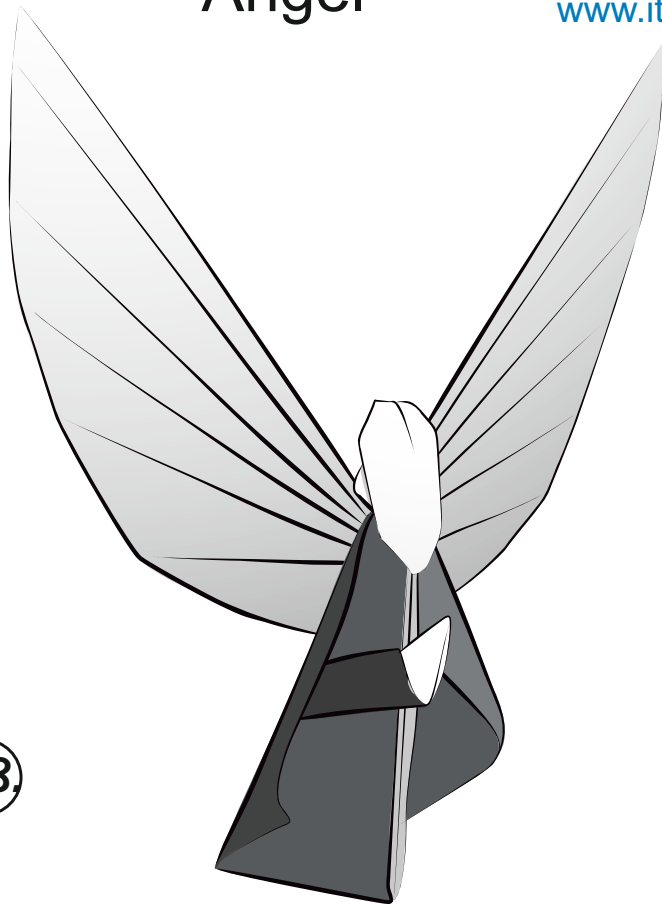

www.itsjustabitofpaper.co.uk

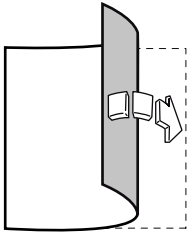

Angel

www.itsjustabitofpaper.co.uk

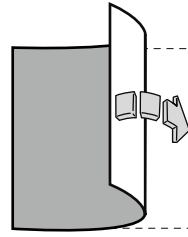

38.

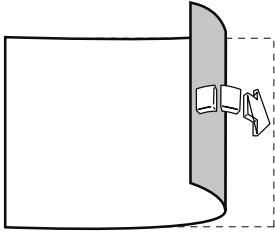

Guide to Symbols used in these diagrams

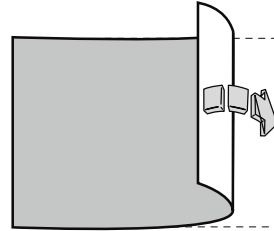

Lay square
coloured side
down.

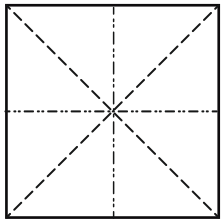

Lay square
colour side up.

Lay "A" proportioned rectangle coloured side down.

Lay "A" proportioned
rectangle colour side
up.

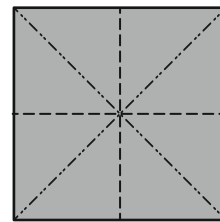

Make a preliminary
base - white side out.

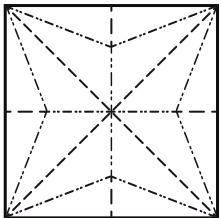

Make a preliminary
base - colour side out.

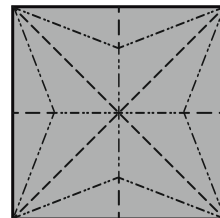

Make a waterbomb
base - white side out.

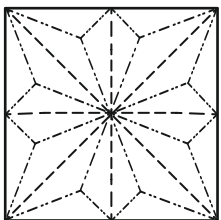

Make a waterbomb
base - colour side out.

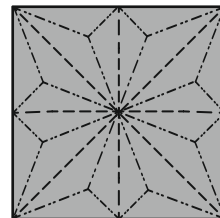

Make a bird base -
white side out.

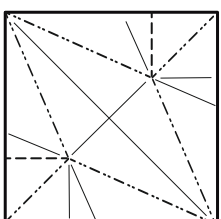

Make a bird base -
colour side out.

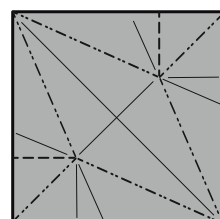

Make a frog base -
white side out.

Make a frog base -
colour side out.

Make a fish base -
white side out.

Make a fish base -
colour side out.

Guide to Symbols used in these diagrams

Valley Fold

Mountain Fold

Pre-creased line

X-Ray line

Fold in this direction

Fold, crease and unfold

Repeat behind

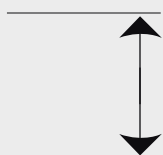

Unfold, see next step

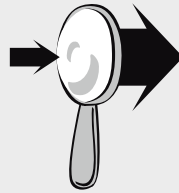

Turn paper over

Rotate paper

Important distance

Next step enlarged

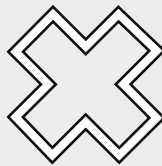

View for next step

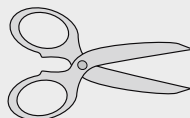

90°

Open sink

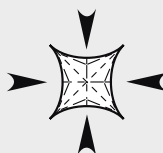

Grip here

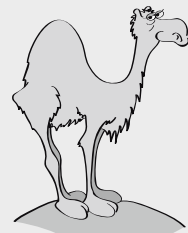

Cut along line

Closed sink

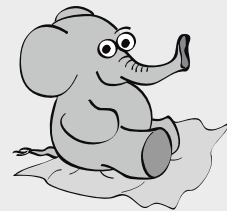

Collapse on indicated creases

Model will not lie flat

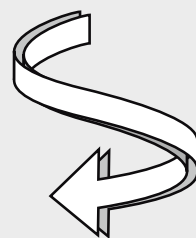

Fold to "Right About There"

Flatten model firmly

Wet folding recommended

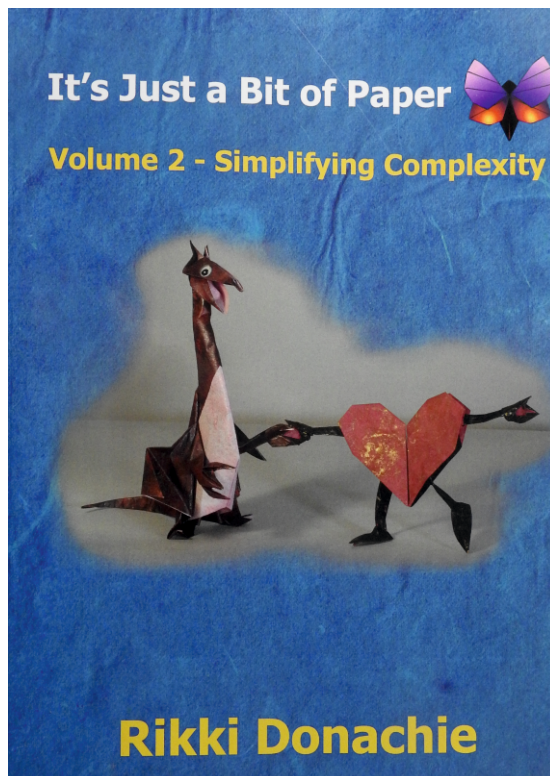

Twist and collapse Anti-clockwise

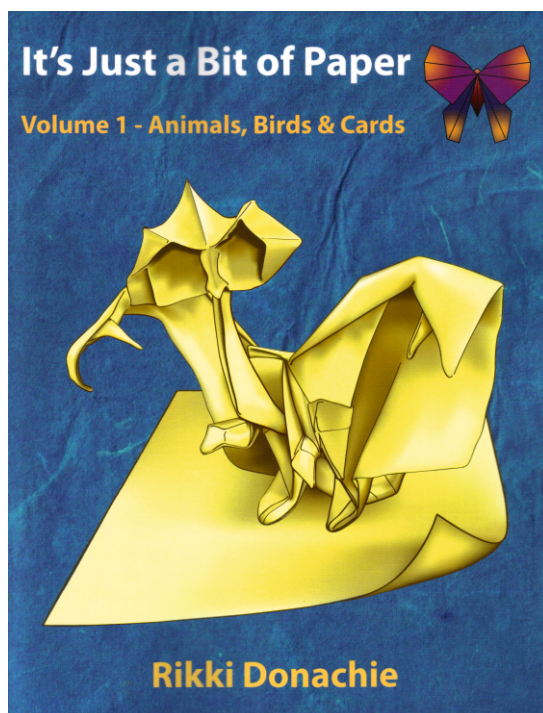

Twist and collapse Clockwise

This model can be found, along with many others, in my book: It's Just A Bit Of Paper - Volume 2 Simplifying Complexity

www.itsjustabitofpaper.co.uk

Which is a companion volume to:
It's Just A Bit Of Paper - Volume 1
Animals, Birds and Cards

www.itsjustabitofpaper.co.uk