

Station Manager

Arrabury Pastoral Company is a family owned and operated company that are in a unique position of caretaking many hectares of country located across the Channel Country, Blackall and Condamine areas. If you are interested in joining our team we are currently looking for a dynamic person or couple to take on the management of Cluny Station. The company would also consider a capable person that has been a headstock person/overseer equivalent who can demonstrate they are ready to become a manager.

Cluny is located 30 kilometres east of the town of Bedourie on the Diamantina Development Road, 170 kilometres north of Birdsville, and 530 kilometres south of Mt Isa.

An over view of Responsibilities & Duties:

- Ensuring the highest standards of welfare for our cattle
- Implementation and commitment to the company's strong Workplace, Health and safety of all staff and visitors to the station
- Managing all aspects of day to day running of the station
- Highly organised and with an excellent level of attention to detail

Shows a strong focus on being involved hands-on at the ground level working closely with all staff with the ability to review and implement standard operating procedures. A team player who contributes with others on the station and within the business.

We take pride in creating and maintaining the best conditions for breeding and raising high-quality cattle for the high-end domestic and export markets. Our properties conform to the very highest industry standards for welfare, safety and security.

An attractive remuneration package will be negotiated with the successful applicant for this important position within Arrabury Pastoral Co. Cluny has Mobile phone service and Satellite television reception.

There is potential employment for a partner if they have relevant suitable skills.

You'll find us at: www.arrabury.com.au

Please email applications to: admin@arrabury.com.au

Suitable applicants will be contacted if they meet the criteria for an interview.