Divine Mercy Sunday is April 12th

"On this day the very depths of My tender mercy are open; I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who will approach the fount of My mercy on this day. On this day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Therefore, let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet"
(Diary 699)

The Feast of the Divine Mercy, also popularly called the Divine Mercy Sunday, is a solemnity celebrated on the Sunday after Easter (the Octave of Easter).

Divine Mercy Sunday, as recorded in the diary of Saint Faustina, receives from Jesus himself the biggest promises of grace related to the Devotion. According to the diary of Saint Faustina, Jesus states that:

The soul that goes to Sacramental Confession (the confession may take place some days before) and receives Holy Eucharistic Communion on that day shall obtain the total forgiveness of all sins and punishment.

The Roman Catholic Church also grants a plenary indulgence (observing the usual rules):

- Sacramental confession [according to previously issued norms, within about 20 days before or after]
- Eucharistic communion [according to previously issued norms, preferably on the day, or the days before or after]
- Prayer for the intentions of Supreme Pontiff [certain prayers are not specified. i.e.: Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be]

Enclosed in this weekend's bulletin is an insert on how to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet and the Divine Mercy Novena prayers. It is suggested that you pray this novena beginning on Good Friday-Divine Mercy Sunday. There are specific intentions each day to pray for while praying the prayers and the Chaplet. For more information on Divine Mercy and the Chaplet you may visit:

TheDivineMercy.org

Faustina, Messenger of Divine Mercy

On May 9th at 8pm in Assumption Hall (SMS Gym) we will have a live, multimedia drama with a modern message, "Faustina" put on by St. Luke's Production. Tickets are now on sale at the parish office for $10 for adults and $7 for Seniors & Students. Please try to pre-purchase tickets. For those who cannot, they will be available at the door. Before the show at 7:30 pm, the Divine Mercy Chaplet will be recited. For more Information please contact Kari: youthministerkari@gmail.com or 856-629-6142 xt. 20.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Opportunities

“Pilate again said to them, ‘Then what shall I do with the man whom you call the King of the Jews?’ And they shouted again, ‘Crucify him.’” – MARK 15:12-13

Jesus told us “whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me.” Every day Stewards are presented with opportunities to help someone. Every day we have the opportunity to see the face of Jesus in others and be the face of Jesus to others. Pray for the courage to stand up for those in need of our help.

FAMILY CORNER

Palm Sunday Lk 19:28-40, Is 50:4-7, Phil 2:6-11, Mk 14:15-47

As we approach Holy Week, with Lent nearing an end, let us reflect on our goals for this season, have we been transformed? If we gave up soft drinks, alcohol or candy, has the sacrifice made a difference in our life? If we have attended Lenten prayer services, have we left enriched? Has our fasting, prayer and almsgiving made a difference in our relationship with God and with our family? Others often know of our Lenten sacrifice, do they also notice a difference in us?

We Are Called

Our goal here at Our Lady of Peace, Parish is $211,508.00; we have already raised $141,828.41 from the contributions of 458 families! We invite all parishioners to participate in this important effort. Please make your sacrificial gift to help continue the mission of the church here in the Diocese of Camden.

If you have not made a donation, Pledge Cards are at the entrance of the Church.

Thank You

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

At 9 weeks, the fingerprints are already evident in the skin. The fetus will curve its fingers around an object placed in the palm of its hand. Let us give thanks to Our Creator for all the beautiful gifts He has given us, but most especially for giving us His Gift of Life and all the while Holding Each and Every One of Us in the Palm of His Hand.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. Please help all women facing a difficult pregnancy understand, accept, and be grateful for the Gift of Life of their pre-born child. I beg you to spare the life of the pre-born child that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion. Amen

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

As Holy Week approaches our attention naturally turns to the land of Jesus' birth and ministry. We are all aware of the special challenges facing Christians in the Holy Land, as well as those who minister there.

The Franciscans and others who serve in the Holy Land are thankful for your support of the annual Pontifical Good Friday Collection. Keeping Christianity alive in the Holy Land is an urgent need and we are blessed each year to witness signs of hope in the generosity of Catholics.
