

The Smith & Kraus Catalogue

Smith and Kraus Publishers, founded by Marisa Smith and Eric Kraus, is the premier U.S. publisher of contemporary trade theater books and associated digital resources. Currently S&K boasts over 650 titles in print, a sophisticated monologue app with 4000+ entries (more added monthly) and a plan to complete the conversion of all print books to e-book format and be on all major e-book platforms by year's end. S&K also publishes the following imprints: Productions in Print (PIP) and Playwrights In an Hour (PIAH).

We are the leading source for books about theater—from collections of monologues and scenes for use in class or at auditions, to contemporary and classic play collections, to acting technique and career resource titles. In addition, we have a substantial list of books for children and teachers.

Beyond publishing the works of contemporary new playwrights like Theresa Rebeck and Christopher Durang, Smith and Kraus has released the definitive translations of plays by the old masters, like Sophocles, Anton Chekhov, August Strindberg, and many others.

S&K publishes books that enrich the theater experience for theatre students, theater professionals, and theater audiences. S&K's work is a win, win, win for revitalizing America theater.
