

Helpful Answers to Your Questions

Can have the marquee in my garden?

Yes providing there is enough space and access for our equipment to be transferred from our vehicle to the garden.

Will this damage my garden?

Grass will recover quickly with some lawn feed and water.

Is this going to be expensive?

We have competitive rates and like to think that we can meet your budget with imaginative use of resources and a creative flair.

Do we need to tell the local council?

Only if you are using public land you may need their permission.

Can I plan my event in the winter?

Yes we can provide lined marquees with warm air heaters run by either electric or generators.

What size should my marquee be?

The easy answer to this is call us as there are many different answers dependent on the event.

What area do you cover?

We currently cover Yorkshire.

Can you help me plan my wedding?

We have many years experience and can help you plan your wedding marquee and event.

We erect many different shaped marquees for many different types of event, the list ABOVE covers a few of the most commonly asked questions.

Please note that most of the events we cater for are uniquely designed and very few gardens, car park s and fields are the same. Our questions are quite general. Please feel free to use the general enquiry form to ask any questions or why not contact us for a no obligation site visit on 01347 878628.