Is your marriage going down the right road . . . or is it a little off track? Life can be difficult, and so can the challenges you face in marriage.

Does the distance between you seem wide? Are you already separated? Looking for a better way? Retrouvaille can help and offers hope for a better relationship. Retrouvaille is a peer ministry of volunteer couples that can help you learn the tools of healthy communication, build intimacy and heal, just as they have done in their own marriages.

Retrouvaille is Christian-based, and Catholic in origin, but welcomes couples of all faiths as well as non-religious couples. Retrouvaille can help get your relationship back on track.

For more information about our August 9-11th Retrouvaille Weekend program for couples, contact registration team: Robyn & Jeff @ 419-481-1116 or visit our website: HelpOurMarriage.com.

"They all ate and were satisfied." Why read the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves this Sunday? Here we see the mystery of our physical and spiritual realities intermingling. Too often, they can feel separate. When we go to Mass, how often we appear more ordinarily human rather than stretching toward the divine.

Perhaps our experience of the Eucharist is fairly mundane. We notice when a new sacramental wine has been selected. We feel the varying textures of the host and wonder if they'll ever bring back the one that tasted distinctly like wheat. As we shuffle up to the front and stride back to our pew, we notice the looks on people's faces and the clothes on their backs. We get distracted by the crying child, the man blowing his nose, and the mechanical sound of the air conditioner kicking in. How human we are, how earth-bound, how material!

And how good God is for entering into these selfsame realities. How good God is for proclaiming "the kingdom of God," for "heal[ing] those who needed to be cured," for having mercy on a tired and hungry crowd. How many of the crowd noticed what had been done for them? Did they realize their dinner was a miracle? How often do we miss the deeper reality of the Eucharist? Even if in the moment of receiving Communion we don't experience radical ecstasy and don't feel any different, there is a tangible reality to cling to. Our God loves us enough to become bread for us, not only to feed us but to be fed upon by us.

Tired of writing checks? It's not too late to sign up for automatic withdrawal for your contributions. Sign up forms are available in the parish office. We are happy to mail out a form to you if you wish.

In an effort to keep our records up to date, please contact the Parish Office if you have had a change in contact information such as address, phone number or email. Thank you!

How can we ever succeed at truly loving God and our neighbor and fully embrace Gospel living? Achieving this goal without an intimate connection with Christ is impossible. The Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Christ, connects us with God in a unique and most intimate way. His very life and presence is wedded with ours. Being forgiven and nourished, we are given the strength and conviction to pick up our wounded and broken lives and be living heralds of Good News. Our world is broken and needs authentic, living witnesses to bring it back to truth. Nourished by the Body and Blood of Christ, are you ready to be sent?

"Before all else comes the individual person," Pope Francis wrote, "and people should not be defined only by their sexual tendencies. We are all destined to receive his infinite love." The Courage apostolate welcomes men and women who experience same-sex attractions as brothers and sisters in Christ, and helps them to respond to their vocation as sons and daughters of God, created in his image and likeness. Together with a priest chaplain, Courage members strive for chastity, build authentic friendships, and grow in holiness. Please visit the Courage website at www.couragerc.org if you want to learn more. For more information, please call the Diocese of Toledo Chapter Spiritual Director, Fr. Michael Dandurand at 419.644.4014 or email at courage@toledodiocese.org.

The Hospitality Kitchen is in need of volunteer drivers to pick up food items on Monday and Tuesday each week. If you are interested in helping in this ministry or for more information, please contact the Parish Office at 419-865-2345.

Lecture offers Christian perspectives on bridging the generational divide

The Sylvania Franciscan Village is pleased to present a Father Jim Bacik lecture, "Bridging the Generational Divide: Christian Perspectives," on Thursday, July 11, 2019 from 5:30 to 7 p.m. in the Franciscan Center, 6832 Convent Blvd., in Sylvania. This lecture will examine the divide between millennials and previous generations created by the digital culture with its reliance on social media. Fr. Bacik will draw on scientific studies, as well as the recent Apostolic Exhortation of Pope Francis, "Christ Is Alive," for practical advice on bridging this divide.

Tickets: $10 reserved; $15 at the door. To reserve tickets, you may leave your name and number of tickets requested at franciscanvillage@sistersosf.org or 419-824-3515. Tickets may also be purchased online at www.sylvaniafranciscanvillage.org.

St. Benedict
CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Students Raise Money for Project iAm

The St. Benedict Project, in its beginning stages at St. Benedict Catholic school, is designed for students in grades 5-8 to research local organizations who help those in need, through the lenses of the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy.

With teacher mentorship, students discern organizations that they feel called to assist, the needs of that particular organization and the development of a project to help fulfill those needs.

Practicing "love in action," students in the 6th grade presented their individual research to the entire class and afterward they voted on the one organization that they felt called to help.

This year, through the research and presentation of 6th grader Audrey Vendemo, Project iAm was the organization for which a service project was designed. The 6th grade, with the help of their teacher Mrs. Allegrini and the support of Principal Martha Hartman, raised money by selling breakfast before school for one week.

Together, they raised over $550 to benefit Project iAm, but "Project Breakfast" (the name of the fundraiser) also raised awareness about Autism and the good work that Project iAm does to assist families who love a child with autism and need support.

Through this experience they became "intentional disciples" and enthusiastic spokespeople for the organization, hoping to encourage others to become involved. To learn more about Project iAm, visit acousticsforautism.com.
