The Sierra Vista Area Chamber of Commerce (SVAC) welcomes all new businesses, residents, and visitors to beautiful Southeastern Arizona!

On July 29th, 1959, the Sierra Vista Area Chamber of Commerce officially filed their Articles of Incorporation. This year marks 62 years in business.

Throughout our years serving the business community we have adapted the ways that we support our community during difficult times, 2020 was unlike any other. We offered membership grants to all renewing members impacted by COVID 19 and sponsorship dollars to those members whose businesses suffered the most. We began providing resources and information to assist local businesses in obtaining Payment Protection Program and Economic Injury Disaster Loan funding, additional grants, and COVID-19 recovery plans.

It has never been more important to have an active online presence than in 2020. We successfully doubled our reach on social media and increased our website traffic to better support our members' needs.

As we welcome 2021, we will continue to strengthen our government relationships, near and far. In doing so we can provide consistent updates to our community from the City of Sierra Vista, Cochise County, Fort Huachuca, the Arizona Governor's office, both Senators, and our Congressperson.

Our committees are focused on how we can continue to support the changing needs of our military and veterans, how we prepare our future community leaders, and how we ensure the future of our much loved and longstanding events. The Business Expos, Annual Gala, Festival of Trees, and the Christmas Parade bring our members and our community together and will continue to do so whether virtually or in person.

The Sierra Vista Area Chamber of Commerce wants you to know that we are here for you and your business; yesterday, today, and tomorrow. What we were 62 years ago has evolved into what we have become today, and we commit to adapting with the needs of our Chamber Members in the years to come

We choose this extraordinary part of southern Arizona to call our home. We choose to build our businesses here because this community, this region of Arizona, is filled with strong, generous, kind, and good people.

We are honored to be your Chamber of Commerce for the past 62 years. We look forward to a long and bright future of partnerships, collaboration, and support.

Don't do business alone. Join the Sierra Vista Area Chamber of Commerce at www.sierravistaareachamber.com and follow us @SierravistaChamber to see content curated for our community and local businesses.

COMMUNITY Introduction

Find your way home

As the largest metropolitan community in the region, Sierra Vista has much to offer both residents and visitors.

Its stunning location at the foot of the Huachuca Mountains in Southeast Arizona allows for spectacular views and the pursuit of outdoor interests, while its elevation at 4,623 feet means we enjoy a year-round temperate climate.

Incorporated in 1956, the city is located in Cochise County, just a short drive from Interstate 10 and about 75 miles south of Tucson.

As the commercial heart of the county, Sierra Vista offers a wide range of amenities usually found in larger cities.

Nationally-recognized chains sit alongside independently-owned and unique businesses, easily meeting the many needs of the local community and beyond.

Fort Huachuca, a major military intelligence and communications center, is the region's leading employer, while our state-of-the-art hospital acts as the hub for world-class health care.

Housing in Sierra Vista is affordable, with single-family homes costing well below the national average, and our highly rated educational facilities providing learning opportunities for all ages.

Thanks to our high elevation, Sierra Vista's temperatures are consistently 15 degrees, or more, cooler than Phoenix, a three-hour drive north, and about 10 degrees lower than Tucson.

The moderate climate coupled with clean air — we are ranked as one of the cleanest metropolitan areas in the nation for year-round particle pollution — means Sierra Vista is a popular destination for snowbirds, hikers, bikers, and birding enthusiasts.

Whether you are a longtime resident, first time visitor, or looking to add to our population of 44,420, Sierra Vista is an excellent choice in which to live, work and play.

COMMUNITY History

As the home of the world famous Buffalo Soldiers, legendary lawman Wyatt Earp, and prominent Apache chief Geronimo, Cochise County is a history buff's dream.

At the center of this rich Western narrative lies Sierra Vista, where the U.S. Army established Fort Huachuca in 1877 at the base of the imposing Huachuca Mountains.

The military installation may be active, but visitors can see the original officers' homes, still lived in today, as well as the barracks, which are now used as offices.

And don't miss the opportunity to visit the Fort Huachuca museums, which tell the compelling story of the courageous Buffalo Soldiers and the birth of the intelligence corps, as well as the old post cemetery where a number of the original personnel and their families are buried.

To learn more about the pioneers who first called Sierra Vista home more than a century ago, head to the Henry F. Hauser Museum, which regularly changes its exhibits.

Take a journey spanning thousands of years when you visit the sites of ancient civilizations along the San Pedro River, where you will also find fascinating ghost towns.

Fans of Western lore can drive the 16 miles to Tombstone, where the infamous gunfight at the O.K. Corral took place in 1881.

And in nearby Bisbee, just 30 minutes southeast of Sierra Vista, wander cobbled streets and alleyways for an enchanting tour of this historic former mining community, where Victorian architecture acts as a splendid showcase to a bygone era.

Access to Fort Huachuca

Fort Huachuca is an active military installation. All visitors 18 years and older, who do not have a DoD identification card, will be subject to a background check before being allowed entry. To complete a background check and to be issued an installation access badge, you must go to the Visitor Control Center located at the Fort Huachuca Van Deman Gate, and complete an access request form. Allow 30 minutes for processing.

Contractors and vendors requiring long term access, which is over 30 days, will still require a government sponsor. Visitors seeking short term access will not require one.

International visitors are not permitted access, unless they are sponsored and escorted by authorized personnel. International visitors must contact the City of Sierra Vista Visitor Center at least three weeks prior to their visit (800-288-3861) to arrange for clearance and an approved escort.

For information regarding installation access, call (520) 533-3269/2447.

Additional IDs required

Any person whose driver's license and/or identification card(s) are not compliant with the Real ID Act of 2005 will have to provide a second form of identification when requesting an access on Fort Huachuca.

Early in 2020 the City of Sierra Vista commissioned local artist Carrie Olaje to paint this mural featuring hummingbirds hovering over a Cholla cacti on the West End water tank.

HUMMINGBIRD CAPITAL of the U.S.

What does it mean for your business?

Sierra Vista is well known for its large variety of birds and the many different species of hummingbirds that migrate through the area. Birders from around the world know Sierra Vista as the Hummingbird Capital of the United States.

However, this title has remained an unofficial nickname until recently. On December 10th, 2020 the Sierra Vista City Council unanimously approved a resolution to make the community’s longtime informal moniker official by proclaiming Sierra Vista as the Hummingbird Capital of the United States.

Sierra Vista is at the top of Visit Arizona’s list of “7 Arizona Spots Every Birder Should Know About” which specifically mentions nature preserves such as Southeastern Arizona’s Ramsey Canyon Preserve and the San Pedro House. A highlight of the San Pedro House is the Hummingbird Banding events hosted there by The Southeastern Arizona Bird Observatory in the Spring and Fall seasons.

“Making the moniker official will help elevate the uniqueness of our area to those who aren’t familiar with either Sierra Vista or its nickname,” said Judy Hector, the city’s marketing and communications manager.

During the council meeting, Councilwoman Gwen Calhoun commented that the title will give community members the opportunity to brag about their city, bringing more attention to the area.

Having the title formally recognized could increase tourism from birders worldwide, and that is no small thing. The Fish and Wildlife Service shows that “18 million birders watch birds away from home,” spending $14.9 billion when they do. The total economic effect of watchable wildlife recreation statewide in Arizona is $1.4 billion, with $24 million of that in Cochise County.

By utilizing Sierra Vista’s new title local businesses can capitalize on the tourism and economic impact the birding community has on Cochise County. Birders who come to town patronize our restaurants, hotels, stores, shuttle services and visit the surrounding areas. There is a reason people choose to live and work in the Hummingbird Capital of the United States.

BUSINESS & Industry

In Sierra Vista you can expect to find many of the retailers, restaurants, and hotels usually found in much larger communities. While Sierra Vista's population is just under 45,000, its businesses serve a wider commercial market of more than 125,000.

Our residents are able to satisfy just about every service and shopping need without having to spend valuable time and money traveling to cities like Tucson or Phoenix.

The regional Mall at Sierra Vista is the only mall south of Tucson. It is anchored by Dillard's and Best Buy and offers a variety of well-known and independent stores plus a 10 screen CineMark theatre. Locally owned Uptown Theatre is nearby.

Several nationally-recognized chains call Sierra Vista home, including Chili's Restaurant, Culver's of Sierra Vista, Longhorn Restaurant, McDonald's, Best Western Plus Sun Canyon, Fairfield Inn & Suites by Marriott, Hampton Inn, Holiday Inn Express Hotel, Quality Inn, TownePlace Suites by Marriott, Walmart, C-A-L Ranch Stores, Dillard's, Sierra Vista Ace Hardware, and Bayada Home Health Care. The city and surrounding communities also boast a variety of locally owned businesses catering to the interests of residents and visitors.

The region's key industries include defense, health care, education, tourism, and retail, with Fort Huachuca being the largest economic driver in southeast Arizona.

The military installation provides nearly 8,000 full-time equivalent positions and its areas of focus include three of the fastest growing Department of Defense missions — unmanned aircraft systems training and operations, military intelligence, and cyber security. The fort has an estimated annual economic impact of $2.4 billion.

Thanks to the 2015 opening of Canyon Vista Medical Center, a 177,000 square feet, 100-bed hospital, Sierra Vista has access to world-class health care. Canyon Vista was designated as a Level III Trauma Center effective May 1, 2015.

The hospital continues to recruit highly qualified and regarded medical experts, and is expected to attract a wider range of supporting outpatient services and job opportunities in years to come.

Businesses and residents pay one of the lowest city sales tax rates in the state, at 1.95 percent, with a combined rate of 8.05 percent — the lowest in Cochise County, with the exception of Huachuca City.

SHOPPING LOCAL Online

According to NPR/Marist Poll National Online Shoppers, 52% of consumers are avoiding retail stores due to COVID-19. More than half of consumers have started avoiding brick-and-mortar stores because of the coronavirus pandemic. Additionally, Statista stated globally online sales are anticipated to reach $4.2 trillion this year. Future estimates put the total at more than $6.5 trillion in 2024. Currently 64% of consumers prefer the convenience of online shopping.

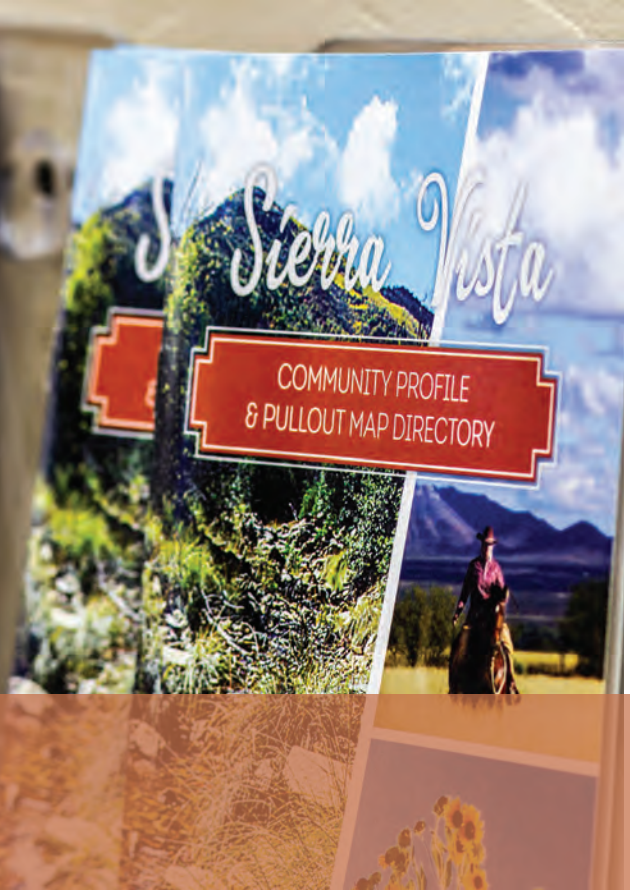

Those are impressive numbers if your business is online. But what if it isn't online? As of October 2020, Sierra Vista alone had 2644 business licenses. Unfortunately, many of those businesses are not online. Those local businesses have supported our community for decades by donating to non-profits, little leagues, and sponsoring events. They have earned our respect, our thanks, and our business. However, this pandemic has made it difficult to shop locally. So, how will our local businesses look forward to a prosperous New Year?

There is a solution. The Sierra Vista Area Chamber of Commerce (SVAC) was recently awarded a grant through The Chamber of Commerce COVID-19 Response Grant Program funded by the state's Crisis Contingency and Safety Net Fund. This grant is based on an economic recovery program. Our program assists local brick-and-mortar businesses through the process of taking their sales online as well. The result will be an easy-to-use platform like Amazon. You will be able to purchase your favorite items from local businesses from the comfort of your own home. One-stop shopping. Looking for a new recliner? Women's black tennis shoes? Agave nectar? No problem.

If you are a local business looking into online sales, then the SVAC is where you need to be. Ecommerce is the future of your business success. Let us help you succeed. Reserve your spot now by calling 520-458-6940 or learn more about the program on our website. Don't let this opportunity pass you by. Get registered today for the program and benefits.

BUSINESS Services & Support

Diversifying the local economy has become the major focus of a number of local groups and organizations.

The City of Sierra Vista created a new economic development department as part of an ongoing strategic process to attract more businesses, as well as to retain the companies already operating here.

A key part of this undertaking has been the launch of its brand, “Extraordinary Skies, Uncommon Ground,” which the city has fully utilized to promote Sierra Vista nationally to potential new employers, as well as tourists.

Thanks to partnerships between the city, the defense industry and local education providers, Sierra Vista is on course to become one of the country’s leaders in cyber security training and development.

In 2015, members of the local hotel industry formed the Southeast Arizona Hospitality Association (SEAHA) to help increase occupancy rates.

The community is also home to a number of agencies that offer invaluable resources to local businesses, from large corporations to home-based enterprises.

These include the Sierra Vista Area Chamber of Commerce, the largest business organization in Cochise County offering networking, promotional and educational opportunities, as well as acting as an advocate in the legislative arena.

EDUCATION

Sierra Vista is a community serious about its education.

In 2016 voters approved a $29 million bond which continues to help the Sierra Vista Unified School District (SVUSD) pay for infrastructure improvements and maintenance, as well as new technology.

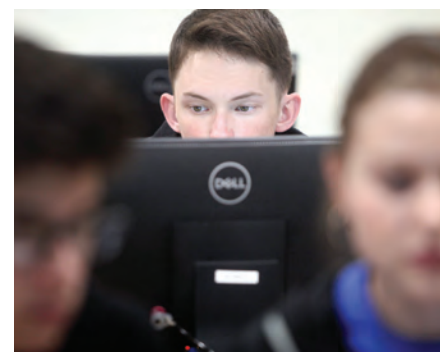

This means our schools can continue to offer quality education, which sees higher than state and national graduation rates at Buena High School.

The SVUSD has one high school, one middle school and six elementary schools, while Fort Huachuca Accommodation Schools consists of one middle and two elementary schools, located on the military installation.

Sierra Vista is also home to four charter schools and several church-run schools.

Residents of this community are highly educated, with 93 percent of the population aged 25 or over having a high school graduation or higher, compared to 85.7 percent in Arizona, and 85.9 percent nationally. More than 31 percent hold a bachelor's degree or higher.

Postsecondary opportunities include Cochise College, the College of Applied Science and Technology - CAST (a remote campus of University of Arizona) and Wayland Baptist University.

Cochise College offers two-year degrees and certificate programs, as well as non-credit personal enrichment classes, GED, English language acquisition, and workforce training. In January of 2021 Cochise College opened a new automotive technology building and in December of 2020 opened a Cyber Center and Virtual Reality Lab.

CAST provides upper-division courses for students to complete undergraduate degree programs in cooperation with Cochise College and other state community colleges.

Additionally Cochise College provides opportunities for people to prepare for careers in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM).

Cochise College provides further opportunities for professional and personal development through the many classes offered by its Center for Lifelong Learning.

GOVERNMENT

The City of Sierra Vista City Council comprises a mayor and six council members, who are elected at large to staggered, four-year terms.

Elections are non-partisan. The City Council defines policy, while the City Manager and staff administer that policy and carry out day-to-day operations.

Regular meetings of the City Council are held at 5 p.m. on the second and fourth Thursday of each month in the council chambers at City Hall. Public attendance and participation are encouraged.

The City also has 13 commissions, allowing local residents to give input on a wide range of subjects impacting our community, including tourism, environmental affairs, cultural diversity, and disability issues.

Quality of life services offered by the City of Sierra Vista include a public library, transit system, municipal parks, sports fields and recreational classes.

Cochise County is headquartered in nearby Bisbee, but has offices located in Sierra Vista, including health and social services, court services, and law enforcement.

Policy is set by a three-member Board of Supervisors and carried out by the County Administrator and staff.

HOUSING & Real Estate

Homes in the Sierra Vista area offer a lot of variety and are very affordable. The average sales price although up slightly from last year is still under $210,000 and you can actually buy a brand new home for around $ 275,000. With interest rates at historic lows, home affordability is excellent in our area.

There are a lot of housing choices in the Sierra Vista area ranging from brand new to historic homes, townhouses, to 6,000 sq. ft. homes. There are homes with land and condos with small easy to maintain yards.

If you want a rental you have the options of houses, condos, or apartments. Rents have gone up over the last few years where now the average rent is $1,250.00. It is actually less expensive to buy a home than it is to rent one. You can buy a home for $250,000 and your monthly payment will be about the same as rent.

Several new home communities are coming into our area. R.L. Workman, a family owned developer, has 4 developments they are working on in 2021. Castle & Cooke have several new homes they are building in their existing developments as well.

Seniors that like 55+ gated communities also have choices in housing. Winterhaven is centrally located in Sierra Vista and Vista View is just a little further east. Both offer a wide variety of community activities and both have brand new as well as older homes available. As for 55+ apartments, there is the Casa Del Sol Apartments that offers affordable senior rentals.

Crossing Point Villas is our moderately priced, affordable single family housing community that was developed in partnership with the Sierra Vista Industrial Development Authority. The homes are modern and close to all services within the city.

The city is also supporting several manufactured home parks in their redevelopment, which provides us with more affordable rentals and homes for sale near the base and convenient to amenities. Manufactured homes on 4 acres or less also provide very reasonable home prices for those that want a little more space around them and don't mind a little longer commute.

The city has been working on expanding and improving our bike paths, recreational facilities, and our parks. This is changing our city by bringing in more people, businesses, and opportunities, creating a family oriented community. Fort Huachuca is also expanding their importance in our area, which is contributing to our growth.

Ask anyone who lives in Sierra Vista and they will tell you that we have so much to offer! Good weather, good schools, good community involvement, good hospitals and doctors, good views, and affordable homes. This is a safe and friendly place to live. You would not go wrong in choosing Sierra Vista as your home.

RECREATION

Thanks to our year-round sunshine and spectacular scenery, every weekend feels like a vacation for Sierra Vista residents.

We are lucky enough to live in one of the most biologically diverse areas of the country, which makes us a popular destination for birding and wildlife enthusiasts.

Surrounded by mountain ranges, this community is also a haven for hikers who head for the hills to take advantage of canyon trails and awesome vistas.

And those who prefer to travel by two wheels will not be disappointed with the many miles of paths and roads that stretch as far as the eye can see through the beautiful high desert.

At the heart of the city lies Veterans' Memorial Park, a popular gathering place for local people who take advantage of its picnic areas, play equipment, volleyball courts, and ramadas. Don't miss the spectacular July 4th celebration organized by local Rotary Clubs. Enjoy music at the pavillion and a nearly hour-long fireworks display sponsored by local businesses at dusk.

The Park area is also home to the indoor aquatic center, The Cove, as well as the Sierra Vista-Kiwanis skate and bike court, and the Centennial Pavilion.

Be sure to visit the world renowned Ramsey Canyon Preserve, just a short drive out of the city limits. This delightful gem, run by The Nature Conservancy, offers peace and tranquility among its woodlands and shaded trails, as deer meander across your path, and rare birds flit from tree to tree.

At the San Pedro River, watch for frogs, beaver, and hummingbirds — just some of the dozens of amphibians, mammals and birds that call it home — as you stroll the cottonwood lined banks of this vital body of water, designated a Riparian National Conservation Area by Congress.

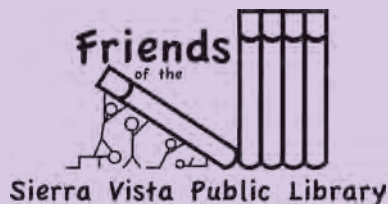

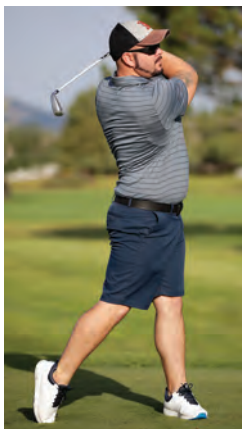

Coronado National Memorial, about a 20-minute drive from Sierra Vista, offers beautiful hiking trails with panoramic views sweeping into Mexico. You can also visit Coronado Cave, reputed to be a hideout for Apache Chief Geronimo, for a self-guided tour.

But for a truly spectacular cave experience, visit Kartchner Caverns State Park, in Benson, voted the best in the country by readers of U.S.A. Today.

Lovers of vino should head to our two nearby wine regions in Sonoita/Elgin and Willcox, where you will find award winning vintages, beautiful countryside, and tasty bites at local restaurants.

When you've finished a day of exciting recreational activities, take a moment to look up to the skies and marvel at the spectacle above you. Thanks to our dark skies ordinances, our night skies are the envy of astronomers the world over.

Arts & Entertainment

Sierra Vista is a small town that's big on the arts, entertainment, and events.

Major events kick off in February with the highly acclaimed Cowboy Poetry & Music Gathering in February, which celebrate its 26th anniversary in 2018. Over Thanksgiving, enjoy the Festival of Trees sponsored by the Sierra Vista Chamber, Herald/Review Media and hosted by the Mall at Sierra Vista. The calendar ends in spectacular fashion with the Sierra Vista Area Chamber of Commerce's Christmas Light Parade in December.

The Klein Center for the Performing Arts, located at Buena High School, is a state-of-the-art, 1,350-seat auditorium that plays host to numerous concerts, performances and community events.

Our city is also fortunate to be home to the Sierra Vista Symphony Orchestra, which offers world-class entertainment, usually found in larger cities, through its annual concert series.

Veterans' Memorial Park is the location for free community concerts, sponsored by the City of Sierra Vista, as well as numerous carnivals and large events, including Movies In The Park, where families enjoy watching major cinema releases on an outdoor screen.

The annual July 4 fireworks display, sponsored by the Sierra Vista Rotary Club with the help of local businesses, is among the best in Arizona and draws attendees from Tucson and Phoenix.

Artists flock from across the Southwest to sell their creations at the hugely popular Art In The Park, hosted by the Huachuca Art Association, which has its own gallery in the city.

That event is followed, just a week later, by Cars In The Park, where motoring enthusiasts display hundreds of classic and vintage vehicles.

Did we mention Oktoberfest, Festival of the Southwest, or Second Saturday? No matter the time of year, the calendar is filled with things to do and see.

Our diverse and generous nature means the needs of many are served by a wide range of agencies and groups, including Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions clubs, veterans' services, a homeless shelter, food banks, and faith-based programs.

Places of worship can be found throughout the city and beyond, serving a variety of faiths and denominations.

VISTA TRANSIT CENTER TRANSPORTATION

Getting here and getting around

Sierra Vista is easily accessible, thanks to its close proximity to Interstate 10, and commercial and passenger railway links, its municipal airport, residential bus service, and a bypass system. The average commute time is just 16 minutes.

Sierra Vista Municipal Airport is conveniently located on the outskirts of the city and shares the runways of Fort Huachuca's Libby Army Airfield.

The airport accommodates smaller private and corporate aircraft. There are 62 hangars and 35 tie-down sites, as well as an aircraft wash rack.

The award-winning Sierra Vista Public Transit System, Vista Transit, provides bus services to the general public, with special attention given to the needs of the disabled and senior citizens through a customer pick-up service. Vista Transit offers discount fare of 60 cents to seniors, people with disabilities, and students.

Vista Transit's regular fare is $1.25.

To be eligible for the discount fare, riders must fill out an application for a Discount Identification Card. Applications are available at the Transit Center, located at 2050, E. Wilcox Avenue, and on the City's website, www.SierraVistaAZ.gov. The cards are available for seniors ages 65 and up, students, and people with disabilities.

To use the discounted fare, riders must present their discount card to the driver and

There are also nearly 30 miles of multi-use and bike paths throughout and around Sierra Vista, connecting to major shopping and commercial areas.

A number of taxi and private transportation companies operate within Sierra Vista, including two of the national car rental agencies.

Sierra Vista is easily accessible for those wishing to drive or fly in. It is a short drive from Interstate 10 on State Highway 90 with a scenic view of the mountains and grasslands.

Voted the nation's Best Historic Small Town by readers of U.S.A Today, and one of Frommer's' Best Places to Go in 2018, Bisbee has much to offer its visitors.

When you first catch a glimpse of the former miners' homes clinging to the copper colored hillsides, it will take your breath away.

You can easily spend the day wandering the cobbled streets, alleyways, and stairways of this Victorian-era community, where many of the original buildings still stand.

At its heart is Main Street, lined with shops, cafes, galleries, and antique stores, housed in magnificent structures dating back to the late 1800s.

Get a taste of life underground when you tour the Copper Queen Mine with a former miner, or visit the Bisbee Mining Museum, which is affiliated with the Smithsonian, and is an excellent way to learn more about this city's fascinating past.

Bisbee residents love to put on a show, and there are few weekends in the calendar where some form of entertainment is not happening.

Large events include the Bisbee Blues Festival, Bisbee Pride, and the Bisbee 1000 Stair Climb.

Award-winning restaurants and attractions make this a unique getaway for Cochise County residents, and a must see for visitors.

TOMBSTONE

For a real taste of the Wild West, be sure to head to Tombstone.

Just a short drive from Sierra Vista, this is where the gunslingers and saloon girls can be found, and where a day of unforgettable entertainment awaits you.

“The Town Too Tough To Die” was, of course, the setting for the infamous Gunfight at the O.K. Corral, and that notorious showdown can be witnessed daily just yards from its original location.

Along the boardwalks you’ll find galleries, boutiques, and stores offering unique souvenirs.

Take a stagecoach ride around the historic city, and grab a bite to eat at one of the distinctive eateries or saloons.

A not-to-be missed attraction is the Tombstone Courthouse State Historic Park, which tells the backstory of this mining community and sheds light on famous former residents like Wyatt Earp and Doc Holliday.

As you head out of Tombstone, take some time to visit Boothill Graveyard, where many of the original settlers are laid to rest. Their unique grave markers make for some interesting reading.
