BOYS OUTSTANDING WRESTLER OF THE YEAR
SEARCY • SENIOR

MATY LINCOLN

The first year of girls wrestling in Arkansas was a special one and this Searcy athlete was a big part of it. Lincoln went 28-0 and won the 116-pound state championship and helped lead Searcy to the team title.

DEMACEO WHITTER

The heavyweight division was once again dominated by this Searcy grappler. Whittier finished 53-0 and won his third state championship at the state wrestling tournament in February. He will continue his wrestling career at Williams Baptist University.

GIRLS COACH OF THE YEAR / BOYS COACH OF THE YEAR

JERRY EVANS / SEARCY

This veteran wrestling coach added girls wrestling to his resume in 2019-20. Under Evans' leadership, Searcy won the girls state title and picked up two individual championships.

JOHN KINCADE / GREENWOOD

Greenwood has been an athletic machine for years. Now, its wrestling program has added to the school's state championship trophy case. With Kincade at the helm, the Bulldogs won their first state title in wrestling and had five individual state champions.
