

2009 Lachlan Merinos Ram Sale Summary

Lachlan Merinos Stud sold top price merino ram for $5000 to the Bredhauer family of Claverton in QLD, and $4000 for a poll merino ram to the Gibson family for their Croidon Stud in Hay, selling a total of 58 of 60, 12-13-month rams, with an average of $1738, up $154 on last years average.

Buyers from NSW and QLD, with new and old clients. The top price ram of $5000 sold to Claverton Stud, Cunnumulla, QLD, was an embryo transfer (ET) spring 2008 drop ram, weighing 99.0kg, with 19.8-micron wool and was sired by Big Tom and from a dam by Junior 12, with 17.5-micron wool.

Seeking quality Poll Merinos genetics, Maurice and Liz Gibson, Croidon Stud, Hay, paid $4000 for a polled ram which they believe would help with outcrossing within a new poll merino stud their son, Robert, had established 5 years ago.
